CEC Columbus Growth Strategy Includes New Principal

January 30, 2012

Pittsburgh, PA — The Columbus office of Civil & Environmental Consultants, Inc. (CEC) has enhanced its leadership team through the recent addition of Principal Christopher L. Lescody, P.E. Mr. Lescody serves as practice lead for the civil/site group.

“We were looking to grow our commercial and residential real estate development markets in the Columbus area and also respond to the increasing demands within the energy industry,” says Vice President and Office Lead John DiNunzio. “Chris brings technical expertise and stability to our civil/site practice group and provides an overall quality perspective with in-house technical projects.”

A registered professional engineer in Ohio, Mr. Lescody has more than 17 years of project management experience in planning single family, multi-family and commercial developments, negotiating project scope, building project teams, delivery of services, and resolving project-related conflicts. He earned his bachelor’s degree in Civil Engineering from Ohio University and is a member of the Builders’ Industry Association.

Chris Lescody can be reached at clescody@cecinc.com or by calling 888-598-6808 (toll-free), 614-540-6633 (local). The Columbus office is located at 8740 Orion Place, Suite 100, Columbus, Ohio, 43240.

Headquartered in Pittsburgh, Civil & Environmental Consultants, Inc.
